2000 Estate Bottled Reserve Syrah

Our Estate Bottled Reserve Syrah was produced from a selection of barrels that showed the best aging potential. The wine reflects the exceptional quality of grapes grown on our hillside estate vineyard. The color is dark violet and the aromas range from cherry to blackberry with peppery smoky accents. On the palate, the wine is rich and balanced with a long jammy finish. The concentration and ample tannic structure should allow for 8-to-10 years of bottle aging. Versatile with food, Syrah pairs well with grilled red meat dishes, duck, Mediterranean-style foods (olive oil, garlic, rosemary and thyme are its friends) as well as spicy food and cheese.
